From Archive Editions Ltd : Historic Maps of Bahrain 1817-1970 3 Map Box Set (Cambridge Archive Editions) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Historic Maps of Bahrain 1817-1970 3 Map Box Set (Cambridge Archive Editions):

This collection comprises 69 surveys, charts and plans of Bahrain, many in colour, including the complete island and surrounding waters and islands. The publication makes valuable maps available which were previously unknown or inaccessible. It begins in 1817 with the first ever mention of Muharraq City on a map and finishes in 1970 with the last maps made before independence. It includes the first ever town plans of Manama and Muharraq to be compiled by the Government of Bahrain, and the first ever accurate land survey of the Hawar islands. There is also a detailed commentary on each map.
