This newly revised edition takes a comprehensive look at the most significant periods and major events in civilization's history. Through the 118 full-color maps (arranged chronologically) and the 8-page time chart with a graphic history of mankind, readers can better understand the events and cultural forces that shaped world history. It also includes detailed graphs of infant mortality rates, population, world food supplies, and gross national product to expand their knowledge. This latest edition was expanded to include 16 additional pages with an emphasis on Asian and African history.
