Noelle White : Hither and Thither before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Hither and Thither:

Hither and Thither is a collection of unusual travel stories from Noll's past, starting as a small child enjoying pre-war holidays in Scotland and later, journeys shared with her husband, Peter, or sister-in-law, Judy Tindale. (Her previous book, Up Over to Down Under covers the five months between her first trip to Australia in 1947, meeting Peter, and their marriage in 1948.) Following the sale of their sheep property in 1972, they flew to the UK, a first for Peter. Nolle renewed old friendships, and they also visited Russia. Later, they retraced Peters wartime journey to his much loved Indonesia. Now, as a solo traveller, Nolle continues her love of exploring the world, meeting new people and making international friends as she goes. Please follow her, read and enjoy.
