Mr Tom Norman, Mr Ryan Lindsey : How To Travel The Land For Less Than A Grand before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised How To Travel The Land For Less Than A Grand:

There are a lot of great travel books out there, but this isn't like any of the others... no it's probably worse. We cannot boast that the book contains several decades worth of travel experience. In fact, just over two decades ago, neither of us were even born. We cannot share with you totally outlandish stories about reckless experiences we had across Europe. We cannot tell you all the museums, restaurants and attractions worth visiting while in Europe. No, we are just two pretty ordinary guys who decided to travel Europe without spending a ridiculous sum of money. But maybe, thats the point. You dont need to be an outgoing, crazy, reckless, rich person with a long history of travel experiences in order to explore the globe. Just about anyone can do it, and were at a unique time when its cheaper and easier than its ever been. We wanted to go and see more of the world. We wanted to gain a greater perspective about our futures, and meet incredible people from all over the planet. We wanted to grow, and learn, and broaden our outlook. We wanted to explore the world for ourselves, and not have to settle for the opinion of the news and media. We wanted to prove that it was possible to have this incredible adventure with a not-so-incredible budget. After travelling for two months, visiting eight different countries, making friends from all over the world and creating life-changing experiences all for under 1000 each I think we did a pretty good job. The first half of our book details of all the stories from our two months travelling Europe, and the second half goes into detail about how you can take your own budget trip. Thankfully our book is not filled with superfluous information in tiny font that leaves you even more bewildered than when you started (I cant stand books like that), but we tell you all that you need to know to have your own adventure. Plus, unlike other travel books, this book gets you 10% off a stay at our top 5 favourite hostels Good Bye Lenin, Krakow Castle Hostel 1004, Bled Unity Hostel, Budapest Art Hole Hostel, Prague A Wild Elephant's Hostel, Bratislava Just consider it as a little bit of extra help towards your own budget adventure.
