Where is Machu Picchu ? Shortly after you take off from Lima and break the endless, thick, white blanket of clouds that don't seem to ever desert the Peruvian capital's sky, you know you are off to a wholly different world. A few minutes into the azure, and here they rise the majestic, monumental, mind-blowing Andes. One hour later the plane will land in the Incan capital of Cusco, the gate to Machu Picchu and the maverick Sacred Valley. The valley has its own clock, follows its own rules and proudly doesn't give a damn about the rest of the world. This book is an account of what awaits you in this eccentric place.
