Simon Faithfull, Lisa Le Feuvre : Ice Blink: An Antarctic Essay before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Ice Blink: An Antarctic Essay:

Travelling to Antarctica on RSS Ernest Shackleton from RAF Brize Norton, via Ascension Island and the Falklands, Simon Faithfull recorded the displaced and disorienting world he encountered every day. After filming the view out of his cabin porthole and creating daily Palm Pilot drawings, transmitted each day to email inboxes around the world, Simon Faithful created Ice Blink: An Antarctic Essay. This is a dispatch from nowhere, exploring the Antarctic as a hole in the imagination by combining Antarctic myths and fictions, histories of colonial endeavour, lifecycles of icebergs and the real effects of global warming, with images of contested and uncharted territories.
