My son has struggled to learn to read since kindergarten. Now that he is in 3rd grade, he has steadily progressed in his reading ability. Anytime I ask him to read "required" material, he balks. Then, he recently discovered some Imagination Station books on his brother's bookshelf. He started reading and hasn't stopped. He's read 12 books in the past 3 weeks...which is HUGE for him! I wish these books were still being written because I don't know what he will read next. But, I'm thankful for the time he's had with this series. Additionally, the Imagination Station books have history thread throughout them. He's reading and learning at the same time. Thank you, Focus on the Family, for an amazing series! 2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. Great book - great series! By BlueAZ My son loves the entire series - great books with excellent messages. Another great series from AIO. I did not receive any benefit from posting this review, but want to share that it is an excellent choice of reading material - especially in a time when so much of the reading material for children is questionable. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. This is one of the best book series I have ever read. By C. Parr This is one of the best book series I have ever read. I have the entire collection so far. We're getting the next book right away when it comes out. Patrick and Beth journeyed to Ecuador and met Racheal and Steve Saint and Waodani people. I enjoyed this book because it was interesting and suspenseful. I would recommend this book for anyone who likes Christian books!

Patrick and Beth have escaped from volcano lava only to be separated again, and no one knows exactly where Beth has gone. Eugene and Patrick frantically try to fix the Imagination Station so they can find Beth, who unbeknownst to them has landed in the Amazon jungle. Will Patrick find Beth? Will Eugene be able to fix the broken Imagination Station? What will happen to the strange man with the spear in his side? Find out in the latest Imagination Station adventure!
