Hans Habe : In King David's Footsteps before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised In King David's Footsteps:

As members of the "Palmach" 23, 6 girls and 17 Boys occupied Monday, February 2,1948 till Wednesday, July 20 1949, Alumin (Chasali) in the Negev and held it against all odds. 8 Month we were completely encircled by Egyptian forces and relied on air supply. The strong point had no well. Water had to be trucked in. Our water ration was 2 litter per day. 4 were KIA, 7 wounded, some twice (like me).The State of Israel has no medals, only a small ribbon was given out for the War of Independence. 65 Years later, all still living soldiers received the "Aleh-State Warrior" order.That were the best years of my live.
