Independent Travellers Britain and Ireland is a route-based budget travel guide that selects the best public transportation routes to follow, cities to visit, and unspoilt scenery to explore. It covers London's cosmopolitan heart to the gentle scenery of the Lake District, including more rugged Scottish Highlands and islands, and hauntingly beautiful west coast of Ireland. Drawing on the Thomas Cook European Timetable for public transportation information, it describes popular routes with practical travel timings, and suggests detours and alternative destinations.

"An essential companion for freewheelers."--The Sunday Times, reviewing the series
