From Topics Entertainment : Instant Immersion Arabic (Arabic Edition) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Instant Immersion Arabic (Arabic Edition):

No frills, just what you need, and lots of it.By Derek JohnsonI have other language courses, in many languages. This Arabic course is straight to the point: grammer, conjugations, vocab - in large doses, colloquial phrases, long and short sentences, then stringing them into complete paragraphs without the English translation...PERFECT! I love the clear and "easy to understand" dialect of the speaker, which I have been told is Lebanese. The course shifts from phrases and sentences in both languages, building them to complete paragraphs spoken in Arabic only. The verb conjugations are many, but NEEDED to reinforce this oft overlooked skill! [Pimsleur and so many other so called "complete" $200+ courses leave much to be desired with regards to verb conjugations - ahem]. My late high school Latin teacher, God rest his soul, would approve of the amount of conjugational drills in this course. Well done Topics Entertainment! This course is truly a masterpiece, and for the money, it stands all alone in terms of value, and greatly exceeds the more expensive courses in virtually all imaginable metrics. Buy it. Salam. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. The best feedback you can get! By Pony Nose I recommend this course to everyone who wants to learn to speak and understand Arabic. There is no book with this course, as it teaches SPOKEN Arabic. I learned Arabic with the (incredible, but difficult) Al-Kitaab from Georgetown University. I used this set to learn modern spoken Arabic. People tell me that I sound Lebanese, Even Lebanese people say that. That's the best feedback you can get!
