This is one of my favorites. I'm not good at learning languages although I pursue them with a passion that usually makes up for the lack of fast brain to mouth transactions. The font is very easy to read in Korean characters and English translations. One of the biggest pluses is the breakdown of Romanized (English) translation into pronounceable syllables. I have asked a newfound Korean friend about my pronunciation and she usually just has to tweak my tone emphasis if anything at all. This is a huge help. You can go from reading the words to using them and be understood. Ok...you won't sound like a native but that is always the case learning a second language. The presentation of topics is very very practical. Topics are short and to the point. It leads with 40 of the most used words like "which, what, who, how, I, me, we, please, excuse me etc.". and these are all followed with a few sentences that you will most often need. For example under "English" ...is the sentence "Do you speak English". ...which is Yong-O haseyo? (Yuhng-Ah hah-say-oh). 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Helpful and informative.
