About the AuthorWe printed Israel Palestine Map last year. Obviously, we didn't print enough copies. For some reason, demand for a map of Israel Palestine suddenly went through the roof, and we've had to reprint. This is unusual for us, but is part and parcel of publishing during a recession. As this is the same map, there is no change of cover design, ISBN or price, just a second printing, please keep selling whatever inventory any of you may have, and be assured that adequate inventory is in our warehouse.
