My wife and I spent two months in Chiang Mai at the beginning of 2017 and we used this map everyday.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. A must haveBy MoninaI bought this for my niece for her trip to Chiang Mai,Thailand, and she loves it. She has used it so much! she said it was the perfect gift.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. A nice map made of quality paperBy Debbi Q.A nice map made of quality paper . it is quite colorful and very detailed,almost too detailed.While it is packed with information the graphics are very busy, making it difficult to quickly reference.lots of information on restaurants shopping entertainment markets transportation etc..

Chiang Mai is no longer just about temples, elephants, yoga, meditation, and Thai cooking schools. Use Nancy Chandler's Map of Chiang Mai to discover new gastronomic delights (ever tried peas-mint-wasabi-arugula-homemade ricotta crostinis or pork burgers with sticky rice buns?), shop neat little new boutiques, browse artsy gift studios in the heart of the Old City, and/or tour beer and wine bars by night (they've multiplied recently). From extensive vegetarian restaurant listings, learning and adventure holiday options and new sights for kids to jazz brunches and jams, art film nights, and more, this map makes it possible to truly personalize your experience of Chiang Mai. The content rich map includes detailed guides to the Night Bazaar and the backstreets of Warorot Market (Chiang Mai's Chinatown) as well as Greater Chiang Mai and the City Center. It is also accompanied by a 90 page directory to help guide you to all the city offers, including restaurant phone numbers and recommendations.

A worthwhile investment ... shows the main points of interest, shopping venues and oddities that you would be most unlikely to stumble upon by yourself. --Lonely Planet ThailandColorful... fun... nifty local tips. --Luxe Chiang Mai City GuideCharts the best markets and hole in the wall restaurants in town. --Conde Nast TravelerAbout the AuthorAmerican artist Nancy Chandler is best known for her detailed maps of Bangkok and Chiang Mai, but she has also created an extensive line of Thai themed greeting cards and gifts celebrating Thailand and things Thai. Other titles include her Thai theme coloring book and activity book for children. Her Bangkok based daughter Nima Chandler now handles all map research and editing.
