With over 193 million people, Brazil is the largest country in South America. Its vibrant culture makes it one of the most popular tourist destinations in the world. Whether its surfing along 4655 miles of coastline, samba dancing, playing soccer, searching for wildlife in the lush Amazon rainforest, or visiting the famous Iguau Falls, Brazil has something for everyone. You can see it all in National Geographic Brazil 2017. Each outstanding image is accompanied by fascinating National Geographic information and a large grid with moon phases and international holidays. Proceeds from the sale of this calendar support vital exploration, conservation, research and education programs. The calendar includes a 3-year at-a-glance page and is earth friendly, printed with soya-based inks on FSC certified paper.
