From crossing the border from Belgium into France to using the laundromat a small lavamatica in Baja, Mexico, the stories are sure to keep the reader chuckling over and over again! An excellent read that inspires the "gypsy" in our souls and gives a new appreciation for the life of grants. Could we beg for a Sequel?? Reviewed by Don and Julie

A journey is not defined by its beginning or end but by what occurs in the in between. No Plan and Sticking To It recounts the in between of a few journeys taken by a pair of geriatric Americans who should have known better.

About the Author Regardless of the 75 years of life experience that is behind her, Ms. Fisher has chosen to concentrate on some of the more interesting incidents from the past 25 years for her new, slim volume of boating stories.
