

[Ebook free] NORWEGIAN a language map

NORWEGIAN a language map

Kristine K. Kershul

Download PDF / ePub / DOC / audiobook / ebooks*

NORWEGIAN

a language map

Contents

- Meeting People
- Asking Questions
- Money
- Numbers
- Mail
- Telephone
- Dining Out
- Time
- Calendar
- Shopping
- Emergencies
- Sightseeing
- Transportation
- Hotels

Practise before you go - Practise the phrases just as you see them. Don't over-analyse them. Norwegian has three additional letters which are easy to pronounce to take - il take - in case

Speak with a Norwegian accent and, above all, enjoy yourself!

Saks (6)

Sju (1)

DOWNLOAD

READ ONLINE

Kristine K. Kershul : NORWEGIAN a language map before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised NORWEGIAN a language map:

11 of 12 people found the following review helpful. Packaging might not match contents By Louis Janus To me this looks like an impulse item at a bookstore. It consists of 4 double sided panels -- encased in plastic. Cute pictures and attractive layout. But the contents are quite limited. There are several categories of phrases, including Time, Calendar, Shopping, Life's little emergencies, Hotels and room service. I compare the quantity of useful phrases to something like Berlitz or other phrase books, and I fail to see how this 'map' measures up. The few errors and typos (e.g., the spelling of søndag 'Sunday as søndag --yes that little line through the o matters! -- , 'mit pass' instead of mitt pass 'my passport', til Kanada instead of til Canada 'to Canada', kredittkort instead of kredittkort, "Snill" in the common expression vær snill misspelled) will not hinder comprehension. But really ensuring that these few pages are correct would not be at all a bad idea. One more petty complaint: The English phrase is "I'm from the U.S.A." and the Norwegian should match USA, but uses "Amerika". Better to have the two phrases match. I find this "Pronunciation tip" amusing:: "Pronounce the phonetics just as you see them. Don't over-analyze them... Speak with a Norwegian accent, and, above all, enjoy yourself." The phonetic guides provided are as good and as bad as most in phrase books.

Whether you're exploring your Norwegian heritage, skiing in Lillehammer, or cruising the fjords, you'll want instant access to the language and NORWEGIAN a language map is just the ticket! With this clever guide, hundreds of words and phrases are right at your fingertips. You'll have more fun ordering smørbrød (smur-bruh), asking for directions, or simply greeting the locals because you can do it in Norwegian. Make sure this Language Map is at your side and all your language needs are covered! Hundreds of words and phrases you'll need most Divided into key categories such as Asking Questions, Dining Out, Meeting People, Shopping, Sightseeing, Transportation and much more Unique snap-open and fold design Pronunciation is easy with simple phonetics Ultra-thin (barely 1/8 thick) and light-weight (under two ounces) Laminated for durability Folds up like a map to slip easily into your pocket or bag Full color, original artwork

About the Author Kristine K. Kershul blends her experience as a teacher, world traveler and language scholar to create a playful, innovative way to learn and use a new language. Teacher: As an expert linguist, Kristine spent ten years teaching German at universities in the United States and in Europe. World Traveler: An adventurous spirit, Kristine has explored more than 100 countries, from Bhutan to Zimbabwe, and almost every exotic locale in between. She understands the problems that all travelers encounter, regardless of which country they are visiting. She knows first-hand how languages can open doors to new adventures, new friends and different cultures. Language Scholar: Kristine completed her undergraduate and graduate studies while living in Heidelberg, Germany. She then received a second Master's Degree from the University of California in Santa Barbara and subsequently, did her Doctoral studies in Medieval German Languages and Literature. In addition to German she also speaks a number of other languages ranging from Arabic to Swahili. A Colorful Background: Kristine's fascination for languages began as a child growing up in a tri-lingual household in Oregon, where Croatian, Danish and English were spoken. Kristine's natural gift for languages opened doors outside the academic world. She worked as a bilingual travel guide in Europe and later, as a translator at the U.S. Embassy in Germany. On A Personal Note: Kristine's passion for travel, foreign languages and new cultures continues to take her around the world. One never knows where she'll venture to next - Namibia, Kiribati or Guyana. Kristine is a licensed pilot, a certified diver and an avid downhill skier. She enjoys competitive horseback riding and playing the piano. She makes her home in both Seattle, Washington and in Cape Town, South Africa.