A Must Have if you Travel by CarBy TJ CoelhoSome people, OK many people, depend on just their GPS to navigate but I still depend on paper maps for backup. I can also see what possibly interesting locations we might be close to that no GPS ever shows. I have these gazetteer for many of the state's we travel in. My wife uses them to help locate old cemeteries for her ancestry searches1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. If you like to go off the beaten pathBy Katherine A. MurthaI always like to buy Gazetteers for states we are visiting as they are a life saver when you are off the beaten path or have to take a detour. We live in western Pennsylvania and bought this one to take some back country road trips in the neighboring Buckeye State. 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Best Map Book Yet!! By Elizabeth Lynch I received a copy of this map book for my birthday from my husband. We love to travel also like to take day trips. This map book has the most detailed maps and area maps yet. From what I understand you can purchase one just like it for whatever state you are in. It is a large book, very detailed, even has dirt and county roads. We used it multiple times last summer and found many roads, beautiful countryside and sites off the beaten paths. I just purchased one for my nephew for Christmas too!

Wouldn't it be nice to always have exactly the right kind of map, whatever your needs may be? You will, with the uniquely versatile DeLorme Atlas Gazetteer Series.
