James Kavanagh, Waterford Press : Olympic National Park Wildlife: A Folding Pocket Guide to Familiar Species (A Pocket Naturalist Guide) before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Olympic National Park Wildlife: A Folding Pocket Guide to Familiar Species (A Pocket Naturalist Guide):

Olympic National Park's towering mountains, old-growth forests and rugged coastline provide a variety of habitats for the region's diverse array of wildlife. This beautifully illustrated guide highlights over 140 familiar and unique species of mammals, birds, reptiles, amphibians, fishes, seashore creatures and butterflies/insects and includes a map featuring prominent wildlife-viewing areas. Laminated for durability, this lightweight, pocket-sized folding guide is an excellent source of portable information and ideal for field use by visitors and residents alike. Made in the USA.

Waterford Press offers . . . different titles such as Backyard Birds and Birds of Prey . . . although these contain only simple listings of the most common types in your area, it's amazing how many species they pack into these inexpensive heavy duty cards. An added benefit is that they can be folded to create a book-like spine for easy display. -- Birding Business, Trends in Books There are dozens of these stunningly illustrated pocket guides to nature. They easily fit in a shirt pocket with space left for note paper and pen. While you won't want to discard your bulky bird, flower, tree, etc. books, these are ideal casual identification guides. In addition to the illustrations, there is enough descriptive material on each species to key in on and then follow-up when it is convenient to scour the books for greater details and confirmation. If we ran a store that catered to outdoor enthusiasts, we'd sure have some of these in the rack. -- Shep, Bookshelf Nature lovers may want to look into an expanding series of pocket guides from Waterford Press. The Pocket naturalist series has something for everyone's backyard. The laminated foldouts feature up to 150 items per guide on topics such as urban wildlife, backyard, birds, pond life, the night sky, and wildflowers. There are also regional, state and city guides for even more specific information. Each water-and-dirt-resistant guide sells for $5.95. --Garden Ideas and Outdoor Living From the Back Cover Waterford Press produces reference guides that introduce novices to travel, languages, science and nature.
