Barbara Pape, Michael Calabrese : Open Road's Italy with Kids 4E before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Open Road's Italy with Kids 4E:

4 of 6 people found the following review helpful. could be betterBy charlieelizaTo be honest this is not much more than a general guidebook. Disappointed that there were no real kid related insights or suggestions that you couldn't have figured out yourself using any other (and there are many better) guidebook.0 of 4 people found the following

In this indispensable guide, Barbara Pape and Michael Calabrese describe how to plan a fun-filled family visit to Italy focusing specifically on Rome, Venice, Pisa, Florence, Siena, Tuscany, Naples, and Milan. Learn where all of the best gelato shops are in each city and town, or the best place to stay in Venice with your toddler. Do you need to learn how to say I need a babysitter tonight in Italian? No problem! Open Roads Italy with Kids also includes a useful Italian- English glossary and fun sidebars for the kids to enjoy.

About the Author Barbara Pape and Michael Calabrese are a husband-wife writing team who lives in Chevy Chase, MD and are also the authors of Open Road's Washington, DC With Kids. When not writing travel guides, they work on political and educational issues in Washington, DC.
