Alaska Geographic is an award-winning series that presents the people, places, and wonders of Alaska to the world. Over the past 30 years, Alaska Geographic has earned its reputation as the publication for those who love Alaska. The series boasts more than 100 books to date, featuring communities from Barrow to Ketchikan, animals from bears to dinosaurs, history from the Russian explorers to today, and natural phenomena from the aurora to glaciers. Written by leading experts in their fields, these books are illustrated throughout with world-class photography and include colorful maps for reference.

This issue tells Vivian and Gil Staender's simple, compelling story of their year in the wilds of Alaskas Brooks Range, with only birds, nature and an unspoiled landscape. Readers share their discoveries and their reactions to a year of isolation with time to sense their surroundings. 150 pages. -- From the Publisher
