Book has hours upon hours of recommendations to get the shorties into the "wild". I recommend this book to all my friends and have started gifting it. Sure, not everything's a winner (Norristown Farm Park? maybe i didnt give it enough of a chance), but you find some weird and wonderful places in here (Palmyra Cove Nature Park?? Bizarre beaches on the Delaware, not to be missed!). Only suggestion is that i wish there was more info in the summaries (ie begging of each place description and the "at a glance planner" so that you can easily narrow down your choices for the day. RECOMMENDED: grab this book, buy some insect repellent, and get the kids out there hunting caterpillars or something.
